

From the empirical results, we could see that the running time of the Median-of-Median Algorithm decreases as the stopping length increases. It confirms the theoretical results from Homework 1.

